

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

This course will add impact and authenticity to your teaching by means of theatre skills that can be used in smaller groups, normal classes and bigger lecture theatres.

The first step is to make every gesture, word and glance reach the back row. With personalised exercises you will achieve this in only four weeks' time. The second step is to keep your students' and pupils' attention levels up by changing the way you present as you go along. Besides these two main steps you will learn to use many other tools. All in all you will learn to:

1. increase clarity and attention levels by reaching your class with everything you do
2. increase attention levels by matching your way of presenting to your content
3. keep the attention up with effective transitions
4. increase the clarity of your explanations with theatrical gestures
5. increase your ability to interact with the group
6. guide the group's attention to your slides and back again
7. prevent undesired student and pupil behaviour and be in charge more

WHO FOR?

Teaching with Theatre Skills is designed for every teacher eager to find new inspiration and aiming to get the most out of their teaching. The course is open to both experienced and inexperienced teachers as the skills we teach are, in most cases, new to everybody.

PRACTICALITIES

Teaching with Theatre Skills consists of three half days with meetings every two weeks. Homework in between sessions adds up to three hours in total. You will be provided with a booklet detailing the course content. When you complete at least 80% of the course you will receive a certificate at the end. The number of participants per trainer is ideally 5 to 7. If there are more participants, the course can be taken with two trainers and 14 participants.

You can take this course as an individual in our open course offer. If enough of your colleagues are interested, the course can also be taken together at your place of work. As set-up, we would need a classroom with the tables cleared to the walls and a flipchart.

COMBINATIONS

Combining this theatre course with the story course results in the three-day course The Art of Giving Presentations. A combination of courses turns out to be more effective than taking them separately. The same goes for combining this theatre course and the activation course into The Art of Teaching. If you are planning to do two courses anyway, we would recommend a combination.

TEACHING WITH THEATRE SKILLS

Teach & Reach

Would you like to get your teaching to a higher level? The first step is to realise that every word you say in class needs to bridge a distance to make an impact.

To create that impact you need theatre skills. They are the ground beneath your feet and applying these skills will change your students and pupils into active listeners. This course will teach you to really connect with your class and reach them with everything you say.

Result: They can't escape your message !

Next you will learn to match your style with what you say and change the way you present when you change the subject. This results in even higher levels of attention and greater clarity. And when you add theatrical gestures to explain, and theatre skills to interact with, you have teaching tools that will last you a lifetime.

Extras: More energy, improved interaction, increased attention levels, clearer explanation, less preparation

Well... just better teaching.
